

Year 6 Blog – week commencing 7th May 2024

The Year 6 team have been exceptionally proud of the children this week, working hard in their revision lessons ready for next week's SATs. The children have blown us away with their strength and determination in the lead up to next week.

Over the weekend, the Year 6 team would like the children to relax, take it easy and do activities that they enjoy with their friends and family.

The Year 6 team really liked this poem written about SATs so thought we would share it with you:

SATS don't measure sports,
SATS don't measure art,
SATS don't measure music
Or the kindness in your heart.

SATS don't see your beauty,
SATS don't know your worth,
SATS don't know the reason
You were put upon this Earth.

SATS don't see your magic,
How you make others smile,
SATS don't time how quickly
You can run a mile.

SATS don't hear your laughter,
Or see you've come this far,
SATS are just a tiny glimpse
Of who you really are.

So sitting at your table
With your pencil and your test,
Remember SATS aren't who you are,
Remember you're the best!

We would just like to say again, how immensely proud we are of the children's resilience this year; their hard work has shown us they will succeed next week. All we can ask is that they do their best.

Have a lovely weekend and relax!

The Year 6 team.
