

Year 3 Blog - Week commencing 17.04.23: Mexico and Mayans

This week, year 3 have enjoyed beginning their new topic Mexico and Mayans. They have taken part in their hook day activities. They began by creating their topic mind map writing everything they already know and questions they have as well as any key vocabulary from the topic. Then they learnt some facts about Mexico and the Day of the Dead festival and had a go at making some of their own Day of the Dead masks below are some examples.

Finally, they had a go at making some marigold origami flowers to make the flowers which go on the alter made for the people that have passed away.
