

Year 3 Blog - Week commencing 27.02.23: Reading in unusual places

This week year 3 have enjoyed celebrating World Book Day. On Wednesday, they enjoyed exploring some of the books from our 'I See Me' collection based on diversity. In year 3, we looked at The Squirrels who squabbled, The Memory Tree and The Same but Different too. The children enjoyed creating a range of book reviews, artwork and stories based on the books. They displayed their work on the classroom doors.

On Thursday, the children came into school dressed in their PJ's and enjoyed finding the most unusual places to read as part of a school competition. Below are some of our places they found. They also enjoyed taking part in a World Book Day quiz.

This week in writing, the children have been writing some descriptive poems based on our class text 'The Boy in the Back of the Classroom'. The children imagined they were Ahmet when he was trying to escape from his war-torn country. Below are some of our poems.
