Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Keeping your child safe in the modern world

Back by popular demand, on Wednesday 5th November 2025, your child will be embarking on a journey with the Two Johns, two ex-policemen, whereby they will be learning how to keep themselves safe in the modern world.

As children grow up, as parents and teachers, we nurture them with life skills, gradually exposing them to the various risks they might come across and how to keep themselves safe. Until one day we have to let go of their hands and let them venture out on their own. What nurturing do we do when it comes to their online activity and is that world real or virtual? We'd like you to get involved in their online journey too.

Some of the reviews on their social media page can be read below:

'Had the absolute pleasure of meeting the 2 Johns this evening at my children's school. Their knowledge and experience is outstanding. We spent two hours discussing most recent developments and how the children perceive the internet. I cannot recommend them enough'.

'Amazingly informative and extremely friendly. Brilliant for kids and adults. Everyone should attempt to go to one of their meetings'.

'Vital information and knowledge. Didn't realise how far apart adults are to children in the internet world. Such an eye opener to what is reality. The professionals that delivered the talk were outstanding. So glad I didn't miss this. It should be compulsory and part of the school curriculum'.

They will be offering training for parents and carers which will take place virtually from 20:00 on the following day, Thursday 6th November 2025. You will receive details on how to access the virtual event nearer the time. For more information, please see attached flyer.

This is a parent event and children should not be watching

Yours sincerely,

Miss J Parkes
